

2026
Hall of Fame Inductee

Brandon King
Central Bucks West 2006

A two-sport athlete, Brandon King earned six Varsity letters across Football and Basketball. On the football field, he excelled at multiple positions, including Running Back, Linebacker, and Defensive End, helping lead the 2004 team to the SOL American Conference Championship. Recognized by his teammates for his leadership, commitment, and character, Brandon was elected Team Captain. He credits his success both on and off the field to the unwavering support of his coaches, teammates, support staff, and family.

Football

Team Captain

Career Statistics: 2,000 rushing yards and 19 touchdowns.

Rookie of the Year

Football Kingsbury Award—Offense

Twice Awarded Most Valuable Lineman—Defense

Most Valuable Back Award—Offense

Stanley H. MacFarlane Outstanding Athlete Award

CB Life Sports All-Area Football Team

PrepStar Magazine All-American Team

ESPN Top 150: #3 of all Fullbacks in the Nation

Rivals.com: #2 of all Fullbacks in the Nation—16thth Overall Prospect in PA

Scout.com: #36 of all Running Backs in the Nation

Keystone Recruiting Preseason All-State First Team

Suburban One League

All-First Team Defense: 2004

All-Second Team Offense: 2004

All-Honorable Mention Offense: 2003

Brandon's success on the football field earned him numerous Division I scholarship offers, ultimately leading him to Duke University on a full Football Scholarship. During his four-year collegiate career, he earned four Varsity letters while playing both Fullback and Tight End and logged more than 1,100 career snaps. A respected leader within the program, Brandon was selected as a game captain and was recognized for his achievements on the field and in the classroom as a member of the ACC Academic Honor Roll. He finished his Duke career with 32 receptions for 339 yards and seven touchdowns and graduated with a double major in Business and Sociology, along with a minor in Cultural Anthropology.

Brandon resides in Chester Springs, Pennsylvania with his wife Tiffany, and their children, Breanna, Hayley, and Hudson. He is currently the Head of Cash Strategy & Product at The Vanguard Group, where he leads the strategic vision and development of cash management products. Outside of work, Brandon enjoys spending time outdoors with his family, including fishing, trips to the beach and mountains, and supporting youth and community sports.