After graduating from CB West, Jill attended Providence College in Rhode Island on an athletic scholarship to play Division I Soccer in the Big East Conference. She graduated, Magna Cum Laude, in 2010 with a Bachelor's degree in Elementary/Special Education. Due to an injury her sophomore year, Jill took a medical red shirt and was given a 5th year of eligibility. She continued her education and soccer career at Providence, earning her Master's degree in Special Education/Autism in 2012.

During her Providence career, Jill was a Team Captain for 3 years and led the team in goals and assists all 4 years of her eligibility. She is the 5th all-time scorer in PC Women's Soccer history with 56 points. Jill was named to the Big East Honor Roll in 2008 and 2010.

After earning her degrees, Jill moved back to Doylestown to fulfill her dream of teaching special education in the Central Bucks School District. She has been an Autistic Support teacher in CB for 15 years and is currently teaching at Holicong Middle School. In addition to teaching, Jill coaches field hockey and soccer at Holicong. She also volunteers with individuals with special needs at Special Equestrians, Special Olympics, and Autism on the Seas. In her free time, Jill loves spending time with her family, traveling the world, and playing soccer in local adult leagues.
