

2026
Hall of Fame Inductee

Matt Sheaffer
Central Bucks West – 2001

Matt earned three varsity letters in basketball at Central Bucks West, finished his career third on West's all-time scoring list with 1,009 points, and helped lead the 2000–2001 team to the state tournament for the first time in school history. With the support of his talented and unselfish teammates, Matt achieved the following honors during his Central Bucks West career:

Individual Recognition

- Team captain and leading scorer in both his junior and senior years, averaging 21.0 points per game as a senior.
- First Team Suburban One All-League Basketball
- First Team All-Area Basketball, Daily Intelligencer
- Third Team All-Area Basketball, Philadelphia Inquirer
- Named Most Improved Player, Philadelphia Inquirer
- Hazleton Area Cougar Holiday Classic Tournament MVP
- Selected for the 24th Annual William Penn Classic All-Star Game
- Third all-time leading scorer with 1,009 career points

2000–2001 Boys Basketball Team

- Earned the first state tournament berth in school history
- Upset No. 3 seed Harry S. Truman and No. 6 seed Lower Merion to reach the PIAA District 1 Class AAAA semifinals. The win over Harry S. Truman was voted "Upset of the Year" by the Philadelphia Inquirer.
- The season included a memorable 10-game winning streak, during which Matt averaged 27.3 points per game over the final seven games of that stretch, including a career-high 32 points against Bensalem.

College Basketball

Matt continued his basketball career at Widener University, where he earned four varsity letters and was named a team captain during his junior and senior years. His college basketball achievements included:

- Widener Basketball Rookie of the Year, 2001
- Widener Basketball Presidential Award, 2002, 2003
- Mid-Atlantic Conference All-Academic Team, 2002–2004
- Mid-Atlantic Conference Second Team, 2004
- First Team Academic All-District, ESPN The Magazine, 2004

Matt graduated from Widener in 2005, earning a business degree with a concentration in accounting. He began his career at KPMG, earned his CPA license, and has spent the past 15 years with Volaris Group, where he currently oversees finance, legal, and IT across a portfolio of software companies.

Matt is honored to join the distinguished list of inductees and would like to sincerely thank his family, coaches, and teammates who helped him along the way. Matt and his wife of 17 years, Julie, reside in Upper Dublin with their two children, MJ (13) and Nate (11). Both boys wear number 10 on the basketball court, just like their dad.
